Any member who joined the Society in 1858, has paid in annual subscriptions £17. In addition to other privileges, such a member has received 19 volumes of Archæologia

Cantiana, containing 8673 pages, that is to say, for every ten shillings of annual subscription each original member has received 255 pages of Transactions, over and above other privileges of membership.

When referring to the General Index it may be useful to remember that the Roman method of expressing the number 50, by means of the letter "l," will sometimes lead to confusion, as in type the Arabic number 1 closely resembles the Roman letter "l." If the item referred to is not found on page "1," reference should at once be made to page "l."

The following list of "Corrigenda" is also needed for certain entries in the General Index.

CATALOGUE

KENT ARCHÆOLOGICAL SOCIETY'S COLLECTIONS AT MAIDSTONE.

CATALOGUE

OF THE

Kent Archaeological Society's Collections at Maidstone.

INTRODUCTION.

The Museum of the Kent Archæological Society was commenced in the year 1859, the Collection of Antiquities presented to the Society by the late William Bland, Esq., of Hartlip, forming the nucleus of it. Since that time it has been enriched by donations from various gentlemen, whose names will be found mentioned in the Catalogue. The Society's researches and explorations, in the eastern portion of the county, have yielded a vast number of important remains, all of which have been deposited in the Museum through the liberality of those on whose lands the objects were discovered. The British or Pre-Roman period is represented by a magnificent series of gold armillæ and torques in the highest state of preservation; also a small collection of early gold coins. Among the remains of the Romano-British period, special attention must be drawn to the fragments of a bronze statue found at Richborough; these have hitherto escaped observation. The intaglio from Rochester is rare and curious, and the fragment of embossed glass from Hartlip is an interesting example of ancient art. A descriptive account of all these rarities is given in the Catalogue. The Anglo-Saxon period is thoroughly representative, and takes rank with the celebrated "Faussett" and "Gibbs" Collections, which are now, respectively, in the Liverpool and South Kensington Museums. From want of space, and other causes, the majority of the objects in this department have not been exhibited, but now, by the consideration of the Council, all obstacles have been removed. New cases have been provided, and every article the Society possesses is conveniently displayed, and rendered accessible to Students and the Members generally. The Catalogue forms a complete inventory of the Collection, each object is numbered, and can be readily identified. The work of classification, arrangement, and cataloguing, although highly interesting and instructive, has been clouded by the remembrance that, with one or two exceptions, all those whose time and talents have been so freely expended in the formation of the Collection have passed away. By taking due care of it, the Society pays a just tribute to the memory of Lambert Larking, Edward Pretty, T. G. Godfrey-Faussett, W. J. Lightfoot, and John Brent.

GEORGE PAYNE.

Gold Ornaments.

A Armilla, made from a strip of gold, cut and hammered out in the rudest manner, then bent to the size of the wrist. Weight 2 oz. 2 dwt. 3 gr.
B Armilla, of better finish and burnished, slightly ornamented at the ends. Weight 2 oz. 2 dwt. 9 gr.
C Armilla, highly finished and ornamented with lines and the Vandyke pattern, flat on the inside and convex on the outside. Weight 2 oz. 11 dwt. 19 gr.
D Trumpet-shaped ornament, which is probably the half of the fastening to a cloak, similar to examples found in Ireland. Weight 1 oz. 10 dwt. 2 gr.

The above four articles are of solid gold, and were stated to have been found in a box discovered in the Medway, below Aylesford, in 1861. They were obtained by the late Edward Pretty, Esq., F.S.A., and subsequently purchased by the Society.

E Torquis of twisted gold, with plain ends. Length 16 inches. Weight 4 oz. 17 dwt. 19 gr.
F Torquis (portion of). It appears to have been broken by the owner, the missing portion was possibly disposed of for purposes of barter. It is ornamented with diagonal lines. Length $6\frac{1}{2}$ in., girth $1\frac{1}{4}$ in. Weight 5 oz. 17 dwt. 12 gr.
G Torquis of twisted gold with plain ends. Length 15 in. Weight 5 oz. 1 dwt. 8 gr.
H Armillæ (a pair), flat on the inside and convex on the outside. Length of one $6\frac{3}{4}$ in., girth $1\frac{1}{8}$ in., width $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Weight 4 oz. 4 dwt. 16 gr.

I Armilla, quadrilateral. Length 8 in., girth $\frac{3}{4}$ in. Weight 2 oz. 16 dwt. 17 gr.

J Armilla, quadrilateral. Length 8 in., girth $1\frac{1}{8}$ in. Weight 4 oz. 0 dwt. 8 gr.

E to J were also found in the Medway, near Aylesford, and purchased by the Society.

For a full account of these and other ornaments of a similar nature, reference should be made to Archæologia Cantiana, Vols. V., p. 41; IX., p. 1.

These ornaments, together with the gold British coins discovered at Ryarsh (see below), and the Anglo-Saxon gold bracteates found at Sarre* (see p. 18) and Bifrons† (see pp. 32, 33), have been carefully mounted in a cabinet, which is deposited for safety in Messrs. Wigan, Mercer, and Co.'s Bank at Maidstone, and may be seen by special arrangement with the Honorary Secretary of the Society.

BRITISH COINS.

Presented to the Society by the late Rev. Lambert Larking, its first Honorary Secretary.

These coins are all of very early types, and each bears upon its concave side the rude figure or disjointed representation of a horse. They are preserved, with the golden armillæ (vide p. 5), in a cabinet deposited at Messrs. Wigan, Mercer, and Co.'s Bank in Maidstone.

1 From Golden Field, Woodgates at Aldons.
2 From Golden Field, Durrell's, late Woodgates.
3 From Sloping Field, on Claygate Farm (Henry Fremlin's).
4 From Stony Stile Field, on Palmer's Farm, behind Mr. Seager's Farmyard, St. Leonard's Street, West Malling.
5 From Pond Field, on Palmer's Farm, not far from Woodgates Windmill, in the field where the footpath is, about one field apart from that where No. 4 was found.
6 From Chequers Lane, Offham, near the Golden Hop-garden in Ryarsh.
7 From Chequers Field, very near No. 6.
8 From Chequers Lane Hop-garden, same place as No. 6.
9 From Canterbury. Donor, T. G. Godfrey-Faussett, Esq.
10 From Birchington (Cunobeline). Donor, Captain Bird.

ROMAN COINS.

From the Bland Collection (vide Case B).

These coins are much worn from long circulation, and were found on the site of the Roman villa discovered in the southern part of the parish of Hartlip. Mr. Roach Smith thus refers to them:* "The coins discovered on the site of the villa are not very numerous, and call for no remark as to rarity of type. They are of Claudius, Nero, Vespasian, Hadrian, Pius, Gallienus, Tetricus, Carausius, Allectus, the Constantine family, Valens, and Honorius. Of the earlier emperors there are only one or two specimens of each; but there are several of those of the lower empire. They shew that the buildings were occupied up to the latest period of the Roman rule in Britain."

36 Roman Coins found at Richborough, During the Society's researches within the Castrum.

The following is the late Mr. Roach Smith's description of them:—

1 A large brass of Vespasian (struck by Titus), with the Emperor in a car drawn by four elephants with drivers: above DIVO VESP. Rare; but much worn by circulation.
1 Denarius of Philip the Elder. Rev., "Felicitas Temp."
1 Third brass of Carausius. Rev., "Pax. Aug."
15 Constantine Family.
1 Tetricus the Elder. Rev., "Salus Aug."
1 Valens.
16 Minimi of the reigns of the Tetrici and Constantine, and not late or post-Roman, as formerly supposed.

103 Sepulchral Incised Slab (portion). Chester. Donor, C. Roach Smith, Esq.

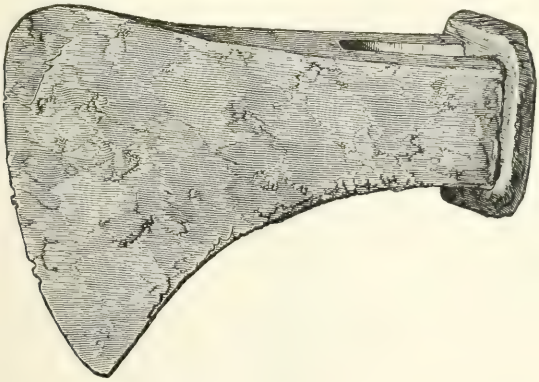
Richborough.

The following articles were discovered at Richborough during excavations around the mass of masonry within the Roman castrum, conducted for the Society by George Dowker, Esq., F.G.S., and the Rev. R. Drake in the year 1865.†

104 Fragments of the drapery of a colossal bronze Statue.
105 Sculptured Marble (three pieces).
106 Flue Tiles, etc. (sundry pieces).
107 Fragments of Pottery, illustrating the various kinds of ware found at Richborough.
108 Tesseræ (3), $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. long by $1\frac{1}{4}$ in. wide. Used probably in the borders of tessellated pavements.
109 Axe-head, iron.



* The division between the flange tiles which covered the roof of a Roman villa was sometimes protected by semi-cylindrical channel tiles, which prevented the rain getting in between the joints. The channel tile which overhung the eaves of the house was ornamented with an antefix of pottery, in the form of a Medusa's or lion's head, and was the forerunner of the lion's head so common upon the iron-shoots along the eaves of houses at the present day. For other examples, see Journal of the British Archæological Association, vol. v., p. 231, and Collectanea Antiqua, vol. v., p. 24.

† Arch. Cant., Vol. VIII., pp. 1—15.

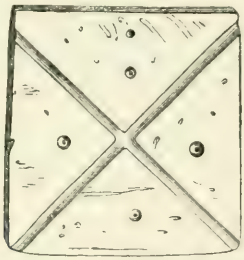
110 Fibula, circular, bronze gilt. Ornamented in the centre with an eagle cut in intaglio.

111 Counter, bone, $1\frac{1}{4}$ in. square and $\frac{1}{4}$ in. thick.



112 Steelyard, bronze.
113 Fragments of bronze Armillæ.
114 Dress Pin with bust of female forming the head.

115 Fragment of embossed Jet.
116 Fragment of Bronze, plated with gold.
117 Fragment of a Bone Needle or Piercer.
118 Keys (2), iron.
119 Goblet with handle, drab, height 6 in.
120 Bowl, bronze, with handles (one wanting). Diameter 12½ in., 4½ in. deep. Found at Dartford, in the roadway at the north-west corner of the church.

CASE B.—COLLECTION FORMED, AND PRESENTED TO THE SOCIETY, BY WILLIAM BLAND, ESQ., OF HARTLIP PLACE, NEAR SITTINGBOURNE, 1859.

The majority of the objects in this Case (unless otherwise stated) were found by Mr. Bland when uncovering the foundations of a Roman villa discovered on his estate in Dane Field, Hartlip. A full account of the excavations, accompanied by engravings of the articles found, together with plans of the villa, has been published by Mr. Roach Smith in his Collectanea Antiqua, vol. ii., pp. 1 to 24. A reprint of it is in the Society's Library.

121 Urn Vase, blue black, height 5½ in.
122 Neck of Goblet, with handle, red covered with cream colour.
123 Neck of Amphora, with two handles, cream.
124 Incense Cup, red, height 2¼ in.
125 Urn Vase (imperfect).
126 } Portions of embossed Bowls, with foliated pattern, festoon, and 127 } tassel bordering.
128 Portion of another larger embossed vessel, ornamented with figures of "Victory" holding a palm-branch and crowning with a wreath a personage wearing the paludamentum over a tunic. This specimen, although very elaborately decorated, is of inferior workmanship to that usually displayed on pottery of this kind. Mr. Roach Smith regarded it as of late date, and remarked that "the costume of these figures cannot well be referred to a period prior to the fifth century." He further states, "There is just enough of character left to bring the manufacture of the vase possibly within the verge of the Roman domination of Britain." The maker's name, SABINIM, is stamped in relief on the outside of the vase.
129 Cup, stamped BITVRIX.F., height 2¼ in.
130 Cup, name obliterated, height 1¾ in.
131 Cup, height 2 in.
132 Cup, stamped RVFFIM, height 1¾ in.
133 Patera, with leaf pattern.
134 Patera, stamped L. R. SECVN.
135 Patera, stamped MARTIALIS.

Nos. 126—135 are of Samian ware.

136 Urn Vase, with dot pattern, height 5 in.
137 Urn Vase, with dot pattern, height 4 in.

138 Vase, height $4\frac{1}{2}$ in.
139 Vase, height 6 in.
140 Cup with handle, very rude, height $1\frac{3}{4}$ in.
141 Vessel with three compartments, height $1\frac{3}{4}$ in.
142 Patera, diameter $4\frac{3}{4}$ in.
143 Patera, diameter 5 in.
144 Patera, diameter $6\frac{1}{4}$ in.
145 Lid of Vase.
146 Lid of Vase.

Nos. 136—146 are all of Upchurch ware, of black colour, and were probably obtained from the site of the Roman potteries near Hartlip.

147 Urn Vase, red, height 6 in.
148 Urn Vase, brown, Durobrivian ware, height $4\frac{1}{4}$ in.
149 Vase, brown, decorated with scroll design in yellow Durobrivian ware, height $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
150 Urn Vase, black, height $4\frac{3}{4}$ in.
151 Urn Vase, black, height 4 in.
152 Goblet with handle, grey black, height $4\frac{3}{4}$ in.
153 Vase, black, height 5 in.
154 Urn Vase, grey black, height $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Nos. 150—154 are of Upchurch ware.

155 Goblet (imperfect), red, height $8\frac{1}{4}$ in.
156 Goblet with handle, of same type as 155. Both these vessels were coloured with a brown pigment, height $7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
157 Vase with handle, red, height 5 in.
158 Handle and neck of Goblet, red.
159 Cup, stamped PATRIC, height $2\frac{1}{4}$ in.
160 Cup, height $2\frac{1}{4}$ in.
161 Patera, stamped MI . . . I . M.
162 Patera, stamped INIIAF.
163 Patera, with leaf pattern.
164 Patera, name obliterated.
165 Patera.

Nos. 159—165 are of Samian ware.

Nos. 147—165 were found in Roman graves discovered on Murston Court Farm, near Sittingbourne, in 1857.

166 Cup, pale blue glass, height $4\frac{1}{4}$ in.
167 Portion of an embossed glass cup, pale green, height 3 in. Mr. Roach Smith says of this specimen, "As a work of art it is among the most rare and interesting." The figures upon it are somewhat indistinct. The designs represent sports of the circus, chariot racing, and gladiatorial combats; the names are those of the charioteers and of the combatants, and so far as they can be deciphered appear to be—MEN CRESGEM
MES HERMVS.

168 Neck with handle, and fragments of an amber glass Case.

For perfect vessels with this description of handle attached see Arch. Cant., Vols. IX., p. 170; XVI., p. 2.

169 A similar example, but of a pale green colour.
170 Unguent Phial, popularly called a Tear Bottle.
171 Bases of Flagons in green glass (3). One is marked with a diamond pattern, with the letters ML, probably denoting the trade-mark and initials of the maker.
172 Fragments of window glass shewing the salvage edge.
173 Fragments of glass vessels.
174 Ornament (fragment), bronze.
175—179 Fibulæ, bronze. No. 178 circular, in speculum metal.
180 Ornament (fragment), bronze.
181 Bronze fragment, decorated in relief with a sea-nymph holding garlands; it may have formed part of a shield or belonged to armour, but it is impossible to say to what it was attached.
182 Bead, green glass.
183 Bead, opaque blue, fluted.
184 Bead, } apparently made from agates.
185 Bead, }
186 Bead, green glass, striped with a yellow zig-zag pattern.
187 Disc* of dark opaque blue glass.
188 Bosses or Stud-heads (5).
189 Fragments of Ornaments and Rings (8).
190 Nail.
191 Tweezers.
192 Fragments of Ornaments (4).
193 Spoon.
194 Nail Cleaners (3).
195 Tweezers (3).
196 Tweezers and Ear-pick attached to a ring for the châtelaine.
197 Ear-pick.
198 Dress-pin.
199 Spoon.
200 Bodkins (5).
201 Styli.
202 Ligula.
203 Ligula, ornamented with spiral silver wire.
204 Dress-pins (6), with knob-heads.
205 Nail.
206 Needle or Piercer.

Nos. 188—206 are all of bronze.

* This disc is convex on one side and flat on the other, being in the form of a button without holes. It is hard to say for what purpose such discs were intended, unless they were used as counters or for some game like draughts. Mr. Brent found a similar specimen in an Anglo-Saxon grave at Sarre (see No. 486). Mr. H. Durden, of Blandford, possesses 19, which were found within the Roman earthworks on Hod Hill, Dorset.

207 Spoons (2), bone.
208 Pins (2), bone.
209 Needle or Piercer, bone.
210 Spring Balance for weighing purposes.
211 Nails (33).
212 Stylus.
213 Tools resembling drills used with our modern centre-bit stock.
214 Hook or Ride for a hinge.
215 Sickle-shaped articles (4), probably used for horticultural purposes.
216 Hooks (2).
217 Keys (2).
218 Rings (2).
219 Pruning Hook.
220 Point of Hook.
221 Knives (8). One with bone fittings to handle.
222 Various Articles.
223 Keys, etc. (8).

Nos. 211—223 are all of iron.

224 Bronze Fragments of an Armilla and Torc.
225 Hair-pin, silver.
226 Bodkin, bronze.
227 Stylus, iron.
228 Fragments of superior Pottery.
229 Fragment of Plaster distempered in colours.
230 Tile, lined in squares to imitate tesseræ.
231 Portions of Mill-stones or Querns.
232 Spindle-whorls (4), one bone, one chalk, and two in clay.
233 Flange Tile, from Otterham Creek, near Upchurch.
234 Stag's-horn Picks (2).
235 Hone of sandstone.
235*a* Intaglio, oval, red carnelian. Found in the garden adjoining the Prior's Gate, Rochester. Donor, Mrs. Richard Twopeny.

A. Stuart Murray, Esq., LL.D., Keeper of Greek and Roman Antiquities at the British Museum, has kindly given the following description of this gem :—"The oval antique appears to represent Hercules standing on a terminus or boundary post. The lion's skin, though in an unusual position, hanging in front (instead of on the left arm or down the back, with only the fore-paws visible, crossed at the throat), the tufts of hair extending down to the very end of the pendant portion, probably representing one of the hind legs, the three apples (more commonly held in his right hand), lying in the field near the bottom, the other figure on the upper part of the field representing some other fruit—all combine, with the crisp curl of the hair and the massiveness of the face, to point to Hercules, instead of to Terminus or to Marsyas, while the presence of the fruits in the field is very appropriate to his position as the guardian of some garden boundary, in which character he is known to have been occasionally represented. The gem is probably of provincial rather than Roman or Neapolitan work."

Case C.—ANGLO-SAXON PERIOD.

Unless otherwise described, the Anglo-Saxon objects in this Case were discovered at Sarre in the Isle of Thanet, or at Bifrons in the parish of Patricksbourne. Those from Sarre were the result of researches made, for the Society, by the late John Brent, Esq., F.S.A., who opened 272 graves during the years 1862—1864. The Bifrons antiquities were obtained by the late T. G. Godfrey-Faussett, Esq., in 1866-67 and later, from graves discovered on the estate of the Marquess Conyngham. The late Marquess presented the whole of these objects to the Society.

236 Goblet, red, height 11½ in. Found in Harrietsham Churchyard. Donor, Rev. J. C. B. Riddell.

BEADS.

These interesting objects abounded in both the Sarre and Bifrons graves. Some are of amber, and others of clear and opaque glass, in various colours, some are round, others square or hexagonal, while many are precisely similar to the modern bugle-bead. Large numbers of the glass beads are adorned with vermiculated work, the lines, diagonals, chevrons, etc., being in white, red, and yellow. Most of the necklaces have a very large bead in the centre, which was doubtless worn as an amulet or charm. There are likewise numerous minute beads resembling pearls, which appear to be of blown glass. They are of the size and shape of No. 2 shot. They were evidently made in lengths, and then broken into single beads, pairs, triplets, etc., according to the taste of the wearer.

TWENTY-FOUR NECKLACES FROM SARRE, formed as follows:—

274 Of 40 Beads.
275 Of 33 Beads.
276 Of 40 Beads.

391 Ring of bronze.
392 Fibula, ring shaped, of bronze.
393 Fifty Draughtsmen of bone, many ornamented with concentric rings, with a dot in the centre of each. One is made from the tooth of some animal.
394 Another set (41). On the flat side of each are two holes, punctured about $\frac{1}{8}$ of an inch deep, the convex side being quite plain. See Arch. Cant., VI., p. 157.

It is evident that these rare and curious objects were used in some game of chance, as Mr. Brent found, with the second set, two dice, one bearing the mark of cinq, the other that of six. Mr. Roach Smith has figured* two dice which were found by Bryan

* Inventorium Sepulchrale, p. 7.

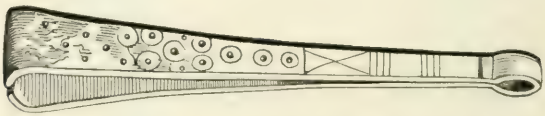
Faussett in an Anglo-Saxon cemetery at Gilton Town, near Sandwich. Mr. Bateman discovered a set of twenty-eight draughtsmen in a barrow at New Inns, Derbyshire ;* they were marked with eight, nine, or ten dots each ; a few having a dot within a ring, similar to our Sarre examples. Tacitus refers† to the gambling proclivities of the ancient Germans, and states that they played games of hazard or dice as a serious business, and when everything else was lost, would stake even their persons and liberties on the last throw.

395 Article in bronze, from a châtelaine.

396 Key-like instruments, bronze and iron.

397 Tweezers of bronze.



398 Fibula, circular, 1 in. in diameter; the centre was set, when found, with a raised green stone, which has since disappeared; round the boss radiate ten wedge-shaped slices of garnet, mounted in silver. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 8.

* Ten Years' Diggings, pp. 180-1.
† De Morb. Germ., lib. xxiv.

399 Fibula of bronze gilt, circular (diam. $1\frac{1}{2}$ in.), central boss of ivory set with a garnet, round which are other garnets. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 6.

400 Fibula of bronze gilt, circular (diam. $\frac{7}{8}$ in.), set in the centre with a garnet. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 5.

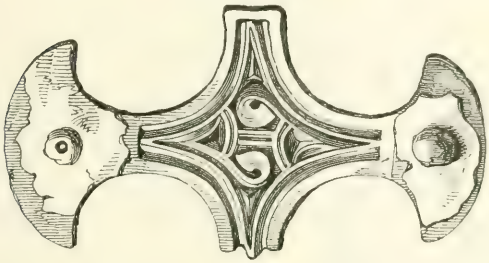
401 Fibula of bronze gilt, circular (diam. $1\frac{1}{4}$ in.), set in the centre with a garnet, surrounded by a ring of ivory, from which radiate three sliced garnets. See Arch. Cant., V., pl. i., 8.

402 Fibula of the same type and size, but the boss in the centre is set with lapis-lazuli. See Arch. Cant., V., pl. i., 9.

403 Fibula of bronze gilt, circular (diam. $1\frac{3}{4}$ in.), set with sliced garnets and ivory; there appears to have been a gold stud in the centre of the ivory boss. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 7.

404 Fibula of bronze gilt, circular (diam. 1 in.). In the centre is a green stone, set round with triangular slices of garnet. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 4.

405 Ornament for a girdle or strap of bronze gilt, with a rivet at each end; silver plating remains round the rivets.



406 Fibula of bronze gilt, circular (diam. $1\frac{1}{8}$ in.), set with ivory and garnets.

407 Fibula of bronze gilt, richly chased. Length $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. See Arch. Cant., V., plate ii., 2.

408 Fibula, silver gilt. In the centre of the upper compartment is a circular garnet, flanked by two others of a triangular shape; all three are bordered with gold. Down the centre runs a cross, at the arms of which are semicircular garnets; the lower end of the cross divides, making a border round an oval garnet at the base. Length $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. See Arch. Cant., V., pl. ii., 1.

409 Fibula of bronze gilt (the reverse seems to have been silvered). The four corners of its upper compartment are set with square garnets, and an oblong garnet forms the centre, surrounded with a thin edging of silver. Elaborate devices are chased along its edges and borders. An edging of thick chased silver wire was to be partially seen along the edge of the brooch, which is now wanting. Down the centre of the jewel is a raised rib, silvered, set with a disc of ivory and two drops of sliced garnets. On either side of the rib are other settings in ivory and garnet. Length 5 inches. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 1. The back of the fibula is shewn in the cut.

410 Bead with silver spiral finger ring coiled round it.
411 Stud of bronze gilt, set with a garnet.

412 Fibula, square, with rounded corners and scalloped; the face is divided into eight sections, each being filled up with sliced garnets. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 10.
413 Nail of bronze gilt, with large flat head elegantly chased.

414 Carbuncles (2), set in silver, as pendants; the mounting of one is gone. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 2.
415 Pendant of gold set with a garnet. See Arch. Cant., VI., pl. vi., 3.
416 Band or ferrule of bronze.
417 Armilla of silver wire.
418 Finger Ring of silver; spiral, double coil.

419 Seven Earrings or Finger Rings of silver wire.
420 Four Armillæ of bronze wire.

Beads.

The following small strands of beads may have formed bracelets. In some graves Mr. Brent found only one or two beads, which probably belonged to earrings, or were worn as charms by those who did not possess larger and more costly amulets.

421 Strand of 22 Beads.
422 Strand of 6 Beads.
423 Strand of 18 Beads.
424 Strand of 13 Beads.

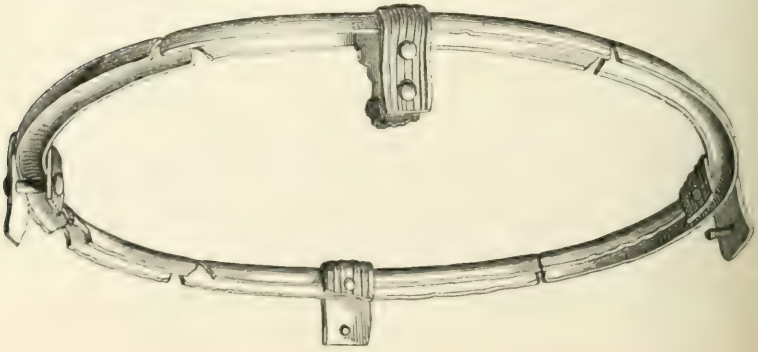
463 Strand of 1 Bead.
464 Strand of 3 Beads.
465 Strand of 1 Bead, with fragment of a châtelaine article attached.

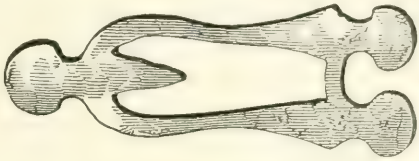
Total number of Beads—313.

466 Rim of a Situla or Bucket of bronze. Such articles were occasionally interred at the feet of the deceased, and probably contained offerings of food. Situlæ are generally of wood with bronze hoops and mountings; they have been found mounted in silver, and are sometimes wholly of bronze.



467 Fragments of Bronze with four brads for fastening the same; they may have belonged to a situla.

468 Bronze for ornamenting a strap or belt.



469 Pair of Scales, with nineteen weights of bronze; with one or two exceptions the latter were made from Roman coins which had been ground down to a certain required weight. The following is a descriptive list of the weights, together with dimensions of the scales (see Arch. Cant., VI., p. 161):—

Scales.—Diameter, an inch and seven-eighths.
Balance.—Length, five inches, slightly chased.

Nineteen Weights:—

1 Flat on one side, convex on the other. 1063 grains.
2 Large brass of Faustina the Elder, much ground down. On the obverse are seven punctures. 320 grains.
3 Second brass of Antoninus Pius. 296 grains.
4 A coin, much ground down. 248 grains.
5 Second brass of Antoninus Pius, much ground down and cut square. 190 grains.
6 Second brass of Nero (probably), much ground down, 146 grains.
7 A Coin, obliterated, indented with a star-like pattern, which had been inlaid with brass. 140 grains.
8 A Coin, marked with a trefoil, much ground down, 96 grains.
9 A Coin, with punctures arranged cross-wise, much worn down. 46 grains.
10 A Coin, much ground down. 94 grains.
11 Small brass Coin. 16 grains.
12 Small brass Coin of Constantine. 17 grains.
13 Small brass Coin. 18 grains.
14 Small rude Weight with punctured marks. 11 grains.
15 Small rude Weight with punctured marks. 8 grains.
16 Resembling No. 1, but flat on both sides and punctured. 300 grains.
17 Probably Coin obliterated. 51 grains.
18 Probably Coin obliterated. 19 grains.
19 Probably Coin obliterated. 8 grains.

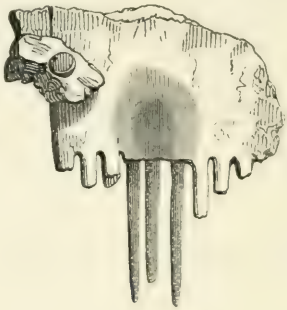
The above set of Scales and Weights from Sarre is the fourth which has been discovered, similar sets having been met with at

Ash,* Gilton Town,† and Ozengell,‡ all, like Sarre, situate in the Isle of Thanet.

470 Bell of bronze with wire attached.

471 Comb of bone. It works on a hinge and folds in a case like a modern pocket-comb.

472 Portions of bone Combs.



473 Crystal Ball.

474 Crystal Ball, found in a Saxon grave in Harrietsham churchyard. Donor, Rev. J. C. B. Riddell.

These balls appear to have had no bands of metal, as other examples in the collection have. They may have been treasured as charms, and carried in a wallet suspended from the girdle.

475 Shell (Cyprea Arabica). This was found with mussel shells in a grave, and as it is of a kind foreign to our shores, the discovery is of peculiar interest. Shells were evidently buried with the dead by the Anglo-Saxons, for a superstitious purpose, and as they are occasionally found pierced to be worn as amulets, they may be regarded as charms. The shells hitherto met with in graves are cowries, limpets, nerites, and snails.§ Fossils, such as echini and belemnites, were also made use of for the same purpose. (See No. 482.)

476 Châtelaine, bronze, with nail cleaner, piercer, and two other instruments attached.

477 Studs‖ (16), bronze, some ornamented. Used for fastening straps to buckles (compare with No. 555).

478 Studs (6), bronze, in the form of nails, two have gilt heads.

479 Studs (12), bronze, for decorating harness.

* Nenia Brit., pl. xii. † Invent. Sep., pp. 22, 23, pl. xvii.

‡ Coll. Ant., vol. iii., pp. 12—14, pl. iv.

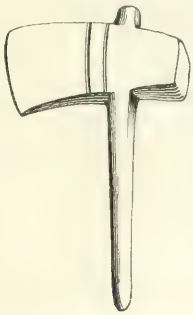
§ References to shells may be found in Inventorium Sepulchrale, Nenia Britannica, and Reliquiæ Diluvianæ. Sir R. Colt Hoare found shells in the Deveril Barrow.

‖ In Inventorium Sepulchrale, p. xxix, Mr. Roach Smith has illustrated the manner in which they were probably used.

480 Tags, bronze, spear-shaped, for ornamenting the ends of straps.
481 Articles in bronze with loops for suspension.
482 Fossil Echinus and Belemnite.
483 Coin of Antoninus Pius, and four others in small brass.
484 Ruby Glass (a fragment).
485 Miniature Axe, bronze, probably a toy.



486 Disc of dark blue opaque glass, without holes or eye to fasten it. (See No. 187.)
487 Stud-heads (3), silvered.
488 Disc of silver, ornamented; it has a round boss in the centre.
489 Chain-ring of bronze.
490 Earring with blue bead.
491 Earring with white glass bead, striped yellow.
492 Earring with brown bead.
493 Earring with green bead.
494 Earring with amber bead.
495 Earring.
496 Studs, bronze, with plated heads of studs. The latter shew the method of plating; thus, a thin plate of silver was beaten out, a disc was then cut from it exactly the size of the stud-head, it was then attached by some strong cement as No. 496A. A detached disc is No. 496B.
497 Rim of a Situla, bronze.
498 Clamp of a Casket of bronze.
499 Handle of bronze Shears or Tongs.*
500 Rings (2) of bronze.
501 Tag-ends, from thongs of leather.

502 Fibula or ornament of bronze.

* Invent. Sep., p. 119.

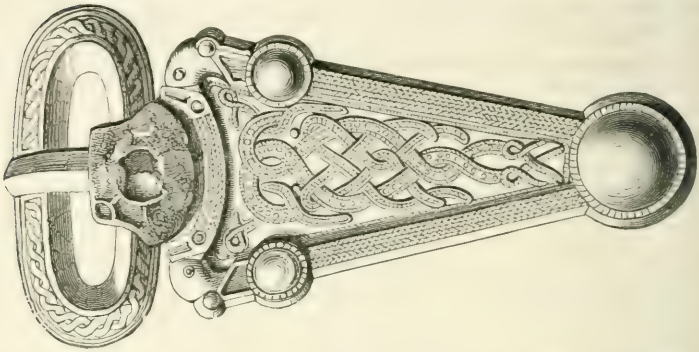
503 Buckle of bronze, gilt, triangular. An embossed plate of gold fills up the centre of the triangle, the hinge of the tongue of the buckle was originally jewelled, in the centre of it was a boss of ivory.



504 Fibulæ (a pair), saucer-shaped, of bronze gilt; diam. 2 in. Incuse brooches of this variety are very uncommon in Kent; they occur chiefly in Berkshire, Oxfordshire, and Gloucestershire.

505 Fibula of bronze, harp shape (Roman).

506 Fibula of bronze gilt, set with a sliced garnet in the centre (similar to No. 400).

507 Hone, of sandstone, for sharpening knives.

508 Amulet of bone.

509 Buckle of bronze (fragment).

510 Buckle of bronze and iron.

511 Coin.

512 Beads (5).

Nos. 504—512 were found in graves discovered at Horton Kirby by the late Rev. R. P. Coates, on the north side of the railway, not far distant from the Boys' Home, near Farningham Road Station.

513 Fibula of bronze, radiated in a similar manner to the Frankish examples (see those from Bifrons). Found in Harrietsham churchyard. Donor, Rev. J. C. B. Riddell.

514 Tweezers upon a ring, bronze. From a grave discovered on Wye Down. Found with No. 265; also a spear head (No. 875), and the umbo of a shield.

From Bifrons.

514A Gold Bracteates (4, from one grave) with loops for suspension. Three are ornamented with the disjointed snake-like design, similar to the examples from Sarre; the fourth is very curious, with a rude representation of a human figure kneeling, with hands uplifted, and face upturned in an attitude of supplication. See Arch. Cant., X., p. 310.

514B Two similar examples.

515 Boss or ornament, of iron.
516 Earring with four beads.
517 Coins, small brass, Roman.
518 Rivets, bronze.
519 Studs with holes, bronze.
520 Whetstones.
521 Fragments of a bone Comb.
522—544 Twenty-three Buckles of bronze and white metal.
545—551 Seven Tags, bronze, for the ends of straps.
552 Fragments of bronze, with rivets.
553 Neck-ring of silver wire.
554 Ferrule of bronze.
555 Loop fasteners (6 pairs and 2 odd), bronze and white metal. (Compare with No. 477.)
556 Studs (2), bronze gilt, with fluted heads.
557 Bronze plates with holes, probably decorations of belts.
558 Bronze Armilla, with ornamented ends.
559—561 Three Armillæ of bronze wire.
562 Finger-ring, silver, plain hoop.
563 Finger-ring, silver, plain flat.
564 Finger-ring, silver, spiral, marked with lines.
565 Finger-ring, bronze.
566 Finger-ring, bronze gilt, set with red glass in an oval.
567 Finger-ring, bronze, broad band.
568 Ferrule, bronze, with piece of iron attached.
569 Ferrule.
570 Finger-ring, silver, flat band.
571 Ring, bronze.
572 Ring (fragment).
573 Fibula, bronze gilt, richly chased.
574 Fibula, bronze gilt, set with sliced garnets.
575 Fibula, bronze gilt, set with sliced garnets.
576 Fibula, bronze gilt.
577 Fibula, bronze, ornamented with rings and dots.
578 Fibula } These are semi-harp shaped, and terminate in a
579 Fibula } creature's head with broad snout like a duck's
580 Fibula } bill.
581 Fibula, bronze, set with sliced garnets.
582 Fibula, bronze, ornamented with rings.
583 Fibula, bronze, in the form of a parrot-like bird.
584 Fibula, bronze gilt, in the form of a parrot-like bird, with eye of garnet. (Compare with No. 369.)
585 A pair to No. 584.
586 A pair to No. 573. Found in one grave.
587 A pair to No. 574. Found in one grave.
588 A pair to No. 575. Found in one grave.
589 A pair to No. 576. Found in one grave.
590 Similar to No. 577. Found in one grave.

Nos. 573—582 and 586—590 are all of the cruciform type.

Nos. 578—580 are ruder, partaking more of the Roman form, being slightly cruciform and semi-harp shaped.

Nos. 585—590 are of bronze gilt.

591, 592 Fibulæ, circular, bronze gilt, found in one grave. No. 592 is set with sliced garnet, as was also originally No. 591. The latter shews in the centre the piece of silver foil with its cross hatching, so common to Anglo-Saxon jewelled ornaments. The foil was used, as in modern times, to heighten the brilliancy of the gem.

593 A similar example, set with three sliced garnets, with an opaque green stone in the centre.

594 Fibula, circular, iron, radiated and set in each compartment with sliced garnets.

595 Fibula, circular, silver, set with sliced garnets and an opaque blue substance.

596, 597 Fibulæ, bronze, radiated from the hinge ends; the ends of the rays and their opposite terminations are set with sliced garnets. Found in one grave.

598, 599 Fibulæ, circular, bronze gilt, each ornamented with a grotesque representation of a human face.

600 Belt-clasp, bronze, set with sliced garnets and opaque blue pastes.

601, 602 Fibulæ, similar to Nos. 596, 597, but smaller and not jewelled. Found in one grave.

603 Stud-head or ornament of bronze gilt, set with a garnet.

604 Fibula, bronze, a flat ring, milled round the edge and ornamented on surface with a double row of concentric rings.

605 Fibula, bronze, simply a circular disc, an inch and a half in diameter, ornamented with punctured marks arranged in circles.

606 Fibula, bronze, flat ring type, with portion of pin remaining.

607, 608 Fibulæ, bronze, of fine workmanship. See Arch. Cant., X., 313.

609—611 Three ring Fibulæ, bronze.

612 Cloak-pin with chased head of bronze.

613 Tweezers of bronze.

614 Châtelaine with appendages of bronze.

615 Châtelaine Chain with Ear-pick attached, and two ornamental bronze-gilt Buttons set with garnets by which the chain was fastened to the dress or girdle.

616 A similar Chain, found adhering by corrosion to a knife; the latter when stuck into the girdle would naturally have come into contact with the chain of the châtelaine.

617 Handle of a Clasp-knife of bronze openwork, representing a dog seizing a hare by the scut.

618, 619 Two Pins for the Hair or a Cloak with facetted heads of bronze. Length 6 inches.

620 Keys (a pair), bronze.

621 Beads of amber.

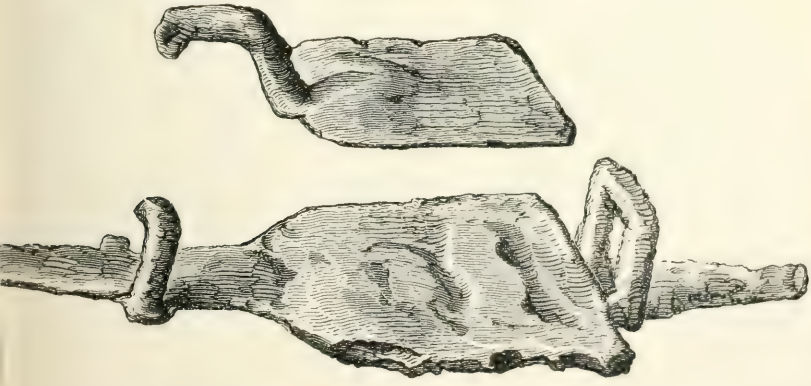
622 Bugles and Glass Beads.

623 Beads, strand of 37.
624 Amulet or Charm of fluted glass.
625 Bead of clear crystal.
626 Bead of opaque glass.
627 Amulet of stone.
628 String of 4 Beads.
629 String of 7 Beads.
630 String of 5 Beads.
631 String of 5 Beads.
632 Bead of white glass interlaced with yellow.
633 Amulet of chalk.
634 Amulet of stone.
635 Button of glass.
636 Disc of Jet.
637 Fragment of light blue opaque glass.
638 Bone Comb (a fragment).
639 Situla, or funereal bucket, of wood bound with hoops of bronze, height 4 in.
640 Bronze Bowl (fragments), found in a grave at Westwell; it contained two fluted amber glass cups (see No. 273A).
641 Bronze Bowl (in fragments) with flanged rim, decorated with small bosses.

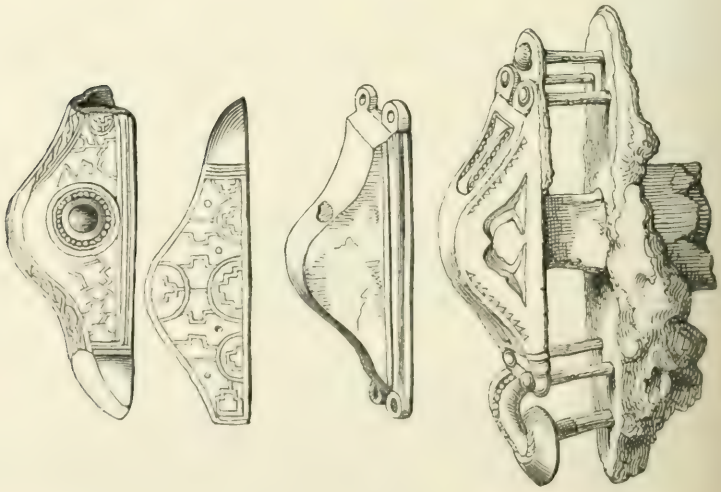
Case D.

Contains weapons and implements of iron, all of which were found in Anglo-Saxon graves discovered at Sarre in Thanet, or at Bifrons. As none of the specimens of iron were dressed with a preservative solution at the time of their discovery, a very large number went to pieces, and the labels on those which remained became obliterated by the oxidization of the iron, thus rendering it impossible to properly classify them. Some few, however, of the Bifrons examples have been identified, and will be found marked accordingly; the remainder may be regarded as chiefly from Sarre.

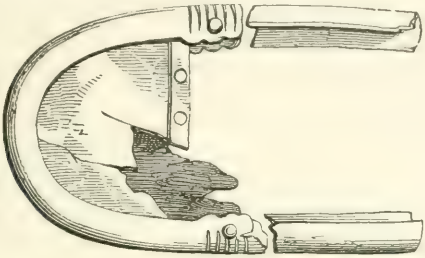
642 Chisel or wedge, length $2\frac{1}{4}$ in.
643 Iron object of peculiar form.



644 Seax (imperfect).
645 Seax or War-knife, length 12 in.
646—650 Similar examples.
651—656 Knives worn at the girdle, about 8 in. long.
657—709 Knives for domestic use found in graves of both males and females, length from 4 to 7 in. 36 of these knives are from Bifrons.
710—724 Fittings of Shields, chiefly from Bifrons.
725—748 Studs from Shields.
749—754 Fittings of Shields (probably), chiefly from Bifrons.
755—761 Clamps for fastening the wood-work of coffins.
762—765 Smaller examples for the same purpose.
766—774 Coffin Bolts.
775 Lock-plate, bronze, attached to wood.
776—797 Keys and Key-like Instruments, 6 of them from Bifrons. See Arch. Cant., VII., pl. xiii., 320.
798 Horse's Snaffle Bit.
799 Buckles.
800 Sundry Articles.
801 Ringles, 8 of them from Bifrons.
802—806 Scissor Shears, 2 came from Bifrons.
807 Padlock.
808—815 Nails, 2 came from Bifrons.
816, 817 Fransica or War-axe.
818—837 Swords, about 36 in. long (4 came from Bifrons). See Arch. Cant., VII., plates xi., xii., 320.
838 Bronze Pommels of sword hilts (3), one set with a garnet.



839 Bronze Chapes of sword scabbards (3).



840 Bronze Pommel of sword and chape of scabbard.

841 Hilt of sword and decorations of sword-belt. On both these objects may be seen the Aryan religious symbol called the "suastika," which was used as typical of heat and light. These symbols more frequently occur in Scandinavian relics. (From Bifrons.) See Arch. Cant., X., p. 312.

842 Decorations of Sword-belt, bronze. (From Bifrons.)

843 Bell, or bell-shaped object. On the exterior is adhering some woven material.

844—867 24 Umboes of shields (four came from Bifrons).

868—870 Portions of Angons. The angon was a long barbed spear, which when thrown became entangled in the shield, the assailant then rushed in, placed his foot on the handle of the angon and stabbed his opponent with a seax or knife.

871 Javelin, similar to the Zulu assegai, length 2 ft.

872—919 Heads of Javelins and spears, from 7 to 22 in. long (12 of these came from Bifrons). See Arch. Cant., VII., plates xiii., xiv., 320.

920 Spike, quadrilateral, length 7½ in.

921—923 Spear-sockets or ferrules, length 5 to 7 in.

Miscellaneous Antiquities.

924 Dagger, iron with bone handle, found in a wood near Gad's Hill, Strood. Donor, Major Luard, R.A.

925 Dagger, iron, found in a gravel pit at Erith. Donor, John Harris, Esq.

926 Ancient Key of Sevenoaks Church, iron. Donor, Mr. Hooper.

927 Ancient Seal, silver, with glass handle, of the 17th century (?). The arms resemble those of Doughty. Donor, Robt. Rugg, Esq.

928 Ancient Seal of bronze found at Teston. Represents the pelican in piety, with the Cross on the field. Possibly belonged to some religious body in Italy. Inscription defaced.

929 Matrix of a Seal in jet, found at Sandhurst, Kent. Legend on one side is TECTA LEGE LECTA TEGE. On the other, SIGILLVM JOHANNIS. Donor, W. J. Lightfoot, Esq.

930 Bulla (lead) of Pope Innocent IV. A.D. 1245. Found in the garden of Smarden Rectory. Donor, Rev. F. F. Haslewood.

931 Finger-ring of brass, with the letter R on the shield. 15th century.

932 Thumb-ring of brass, found on Penenden Heath.

933 Sword. This was formerly hung over the Romden pew in Smarden Church, and is said to have belonged to Colonel Otway. Donor, Rev. F. F. Haslewood. (Vide History and Antiquities of Smarden, p. 11.)

934 Sword, found on pulling down an old house at Rolvenden. Donor, Rev. W. J. Edge.

935 Sword, inscribed on one side of the blade, "SI DEUS EST PRO," and on the other, "NOBIS QUI CONTRA."

936 Antique Comb of iron, found in the rectory garden at Harrietsham. Donor, Rev. J. C. B. Riddell.

Rules of the Kent Archæological Society.

1. The Society shall consist of Ordinary Members and Honorary Members.

2. The affairs of the Society shall be conducted by a Council consisting of the President of the Society, the Vice-Presidents, the Honorary Secretary, and twenty-four Members elected out of the general body of the Subscribers: one-fourth of the latter shall go out annually in rotation, but shall nevertheless be re-eligible; and such retiring and the new election shall take place at the Annual General Meeting: but any intermediate vacancy, by death or retirement, among the elected Council, shall be filled up either at the General Meeting or at the next Council Meeting, whichever shall first happen. Five Members of the Council to constitute a quorum.

3. The Council shall meet to transact the business of the Society on the second Thursday in the months of March, June, September, and December, and at any other time that the Secretary may deem it expedient to call them together. The June Meeting shall always be held in London; those of March, September, and December at Canterbury and Maidstone alternately. But the Council shall have power, if it shall deem it advisable, at the instance of the President, to hold its Meetings at other places within the county; and to alter the days of Meeting, or to omit a Quarterly Meeting if it shall be found convenient.

4. At every Meeting of the Society or Council, the President, or, in his absence, the Chairman, shall have a casting vote, independently of his vote as a Member.

5. A General Meeting of the Society shall be held annually, in July, August, or September, at some place rendered interesting by its antiquities or historical associations, in the eastern and western divisions of the county alternately, unless the Council, for some cause to be by them assigned, agree to vary this arrangement; the day and place of meeting to be appointed by the Council, who shall have the power, at the instance of the President, to elect some Member of the Society connected with the district in which the meeting shall be held, to act as Chairman of such Meeting. At the said General Meeting, antiquities shall be exhibited, and papers read on subjects of archæological interest. The accounts of the Society, having been previously allowed by the Auditors, shall be presented; the Council, through the Secretary, shall make a Report on the state of the Society; and the Auditors and the six new Members of the Council for the ensuing year shall be elected.

6. The Annual General Meeting shall have power to make such alterations in the Rules as the majority of Members present may approve: provided that notice of any contemplated alterations be given, in writing, to the Honorary Secretary, before June the 1st in the then current year, to be laid by him before the Council at their next Meeting; provided, also, that the said contemplated alterations be specifically set out in the notices summoning the Meeting, at least one month before the day appointed for it.

7. A Special General Meeting may be summoned, on the written requisition of seven Members, or of the President, or two Vice-Presidents, which must specify the subject intended to be brought forward at such Meeting; and such subject alone can then be considered.

8. Candidates for admission must be proposed by one Member of the Society, and seconded by another, and be balloted for, if required, at any Meeting of the Council, or at a General Meeting, one black ball in five to exclude.

9. Each Ordinary Member shall pay an Annual Subscription of Ten Shillings, due in advance on the 1st of January in each year; or £6 may at any time be paid in lieu of future subscriptions, as a composition for life. Any Ordinary Member shall pay, on election, an entrance fee of Ten Shillings, in addition to his Subscription, whether Annual or Life. Every Member shall be entitled to a copy of the Society's Publications; but none will be issued to any Member whose Subscription is in arrear. The Council may remove from the List of Subscribers the name of any Member whose Subscription is two years in arrear, if it be certified to them that a written application for payment has been made by one of the Secretaries, and not attended to within a month from the time of application.

10. All Subscriptions and Donations are to be paid to the Bankers of the Society, or to one of the Secretaries.

11. All Life Compositions shall be vested in Government Securities, in the names of four Trustees, to be elected by the Council. The interest only of such funds to be used for the ordinary purposes of the Society.

12. No cheque shall be drawn except by order of the Council, and every cheque shall be signed by two Members of the Council and the Honorary Secretary.

13. The President and Secretary, on any vacancy, shall be elected by a General Meeting of the Subscribers.

14. Members of either House of Parliament, who are landed proprietors of the county or residents therein, shall, on becoming Members of the Society, be placed on the list of Vice-Presidents, and with them such other persons as the Society may elect to that office.

15. The Council shall have power to elect, without ballot, on the nomination of two Members, any lady who may be desirous of becoming a Member of the Society.

16. The Council shall have power to appoint as Honorary Members any person likely to promote the interests of the Society. Such Honorary Member not to pay any subscription, and not to have the right of voting at any Meetings of the Society; but to have all the other privileges of Members.

17. The Council shall have power to appoint any Member Honorary Local Secretary for the town or district wherein he may reside, in order to facilitate the collection of accurate information as to objects and discoveries of local interest, and for the receipt of subscriptions.

18. Meetings for the purpose of reading papers, the exhibition of antiquities, or the discussion of subjects connected therewith, shall be held at such times and places as the Council may appoint.

19. The Society shall avoid all subjects of religious or political controversy.

20. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Society, to be communicated to the Members at the General Meetings.

The Kent Archæological Society.

PROCEEDINGS, 1890.

THE Council met at Maidstone on March 27th, 1890. Ten members attended, Canon Scott Robertson presiding.

The Secretary was instructed to send the following resolution of condolence to the Countess Sydney on the lamented death of the noble President.

That the Council of the Kent Archæological Society desire, unanimously, to express to Countess Sydney their condolence at the death of Earl Sydney, and to place upon record their sense of the loss which the Society has sustained thereby. The invariable courtesy and kindly hospitality which Lord Sydney extended to the Council will always be gratefully remembered by them, and the Society generally derived great advantage from his connection with it as President. In conveying this expression of sympathy to Countess Sydney, the Council desires also to thank her for the kind reception which she in common with the late President always gave to them.

It was unanimously resolved that the Earl Stanhope, F.S.A., Lord-Lieutenant of the county, be recommended to the members at a General Meeting for the office of President.

Fourteen new members were elected.

Thanks were voted to Mr. Nightingale, F.S.A., for his book on the "Church Plate of Dorset," and to H. A. Grueber, Esq., F.S.A., for his report on the Medals belonging to the Society.

A SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING was held at the Fountain Hotel, Canterbury, on April 23rd, for the purpose of electing a President in the place of the late Earl Sydney. There were present, the Very Rev. the Dean of Canterbury (in the Chair), the Venerable the Archdeacon of Maidstone, Canon Scott Robertson, Canon Routledge, Canon Hussey, Rev. Dr. Haslewood, Rev. J. A. Boodle, Rev. C. E. Woodruff, Rev. C. A. Molony, Col. Elyard, G. E. Hannam, Esq., Geo. Wilks, Esq., Geo. Dowker, Esq., W. H. B. Rosher, Esq., and the Secretary.

On the proposition of Archdeacon Smith, the Earl Stanhope, F.S.A., Lord-Lieutenant of Kent, was unanimously elected President of the Society.

Several letters were read by the Chairman, wherein members expressed their entire approval of the nomination of the Earl Stanhope by the Council.

A vote of sympathy was accorded to Mr. Charles Roach Smith, in his serious and protracted illness.

The Chairman proposed, and Mr. Hannam seconded, a resolution that the Council take steps to present to Canon Scott Robertson some substantial recognition of his eminent services to the Society during the long period of his Secretariat and Editorship. The resolution was carried unanimously amidst great applause.

The Council met on June 24th in London, at the house of the noble President in Grosvenor Place. Fourteen members attended, presided over by the Earl Stanhope.

The following letter was read from the Countess Sydney:—"Frognal, March 1890. Lady Sydney returns her most heartfelt thanks for all the kindness shewn her in her bereavement, and for the many tokens of respect and affection which have been accorded to the memory of her beloved husband. Amongst them, not one has been more gratefully received by her than the very kind and sympathetic resolution of the Council of the Kent Archæological Society, which comprises so many personal friends of her dear husband and herself."

It was unanimously resolved, "That a suitable piece of plate, not exceeding £50 in value, be presented as a Testimonial to Canon Scott Robertson, in recognition of his valuable services to the Society during the seventeen years throughout which he acted as its Honorary Secretary and its Honorary Editor." The selection thereof was left to Lord Stanhope and the Secretary.

Seven new members were elected.

The Annual Meeting commenced at Canterbury on Monday, July 21st, 1890.

The Business Meeting was held in Eastbridge Hospital, the Chair being taken by the Dean of Canterbury.

The Mayor (Alderman Mason) welcomed the Society, and expressed a hope that its members would have a pleasant time.

The Report was read by the Secretary (G. Payne, Esq.), as follows:—

REPORT.

For the fourth time the Society assembles its members in the ancient city of Canterbury. In presenting the Thirty-third Annual Report of your Society, the Council have to congratulate you on the continued success of the Society, and they observe with much satisfaction an increasing desire on the part of members generally to assist in promoting those objects for which the Society was founded.

During the past year death has removed from the county the Earl Sydney, who for five years was President of the Society, and who filled that office with efficiency and great courtesy.

The Council will ever remember with pleasure the kindly hospitality accorded them by their late President and the Countess Sydney, on various occasions when they met in London or at Deal Castle.

Nor can the members ever forget their reception, and the sumptuous entertainment provided for them, by the late Earl and the Countess Sydney, when they invited the Society to Frognal, during the Annual Meeting in 1878.

We also have to deplore the loss of one of our most esteemed Vice-Presidents, the Right Reverend Dr. Parry, the Lord Bishop of Dover. When we last met at Canterbury we had the advantage of his valuable co-operation, as on former occasions. By his death the Church has lost one of its brightest ornaments, and this Society one of its staunchest friends.

Many other valuable members have been withdrawn from our ranks, but our numbers are still well maintained, standing at the present time at 871, while 12 candidates await election at your hands to-day.

Before the meeting closes you will be called upon to welcome the new President of the Society, the Earl Stanhope, Lord-Lieutenant of the County, and the Council feel sure that you will give him an enthusiastic reception.

Since the last Annual Meeting, the 18th Volume of Archæologia Cantiana was issued to members, early in 1890. It is in no way inferior to its predecessors, and it bears that stamp of excellence which is the distinguishing mark of the work of our accomplished Editor, whom we are all delighted to see here to-day restored to health and strength.

The total cost of Vol. XVIII. was £597 : 10 : 2, yet in spite of so large an outlay there still remains a balance to the Society's credit, at the Bankers, of £580 : 19 : 4.

Considerable alterations have been wrought in our Rooms at Maidstone, since the appointment of your Honorary Secretary as the Society's Chief Curator. The fine collection of Remains of Ancient Art and Weapons of War, together with many other objects of value and interest, have all been carefully mounted and brought into view. The Council hope that the presence of the Chief Curator at Maidstone, on Thursday in every week, will induce members occasionally to visit the Rooms, for the purpose of studying the collection, referring to the books in the Society's Library, and taking part in discussions for the advancement of Archæology.

The General Index to the Eighteen Volumes of Archæologia Cantiana is in progress, and Miss Rita Fox, the compiler, reports that the manuscript is complete to the letter L, and that other later letters are also well advanced.

In conclusion, the Council appeals to the members to do all in their power to further the interests of the Society, and of Archæology generally, by reporting promptly to the Honorary Secretary any discoveries which may come under their notice, or any acts of vandalism about to be committed. In the one case it would ensure every discovery being properly recorded, and in the other it might be the means of saving from destruction many interesting monuments.

G. E. Hannam, Esq., moved the adoption of the Report; this was seconded by G. M. Arnold, Esq., and carried unanimously.

It was moved and carried:—"That the retiring members of Council and the Auditors be re-elected."

It was moved and carried:—"That Canon C. F. Routledge, M.A., be made a member of Council, vice C. R. C. Petley, Esq., deceased."

On the proposition of Lewis Levy, Esq., the Meeting confirmed, by acclamation, the vote of the Council on the 24th June, to present a piece of plate to Canon Scott Robertson.

Eighteen candidates were elected members of the Society.

This concluded the business of the Meeting, when the company proceeded to the Cathedral. En route, the restored church of St. Alphage was inspected, under the guidance of the Incumbent, the Rev. T. G. Crosse.

At noon the Dean, in the Chapter House, cordially welcomed the Society to the Cathedral. There were nearly four hundred ladies and gentlemen present, who accorded to the Earl Stanhope a hearty reception on his taking the Chair, as the new President of the Society.

The Dean having referred to the various places of interest to be visited during the day, Canon Scott Robertson followed with an exhaustive description of the architectural history of the Cathedral.

The large company then divided into four parties, and made a perambulation of the Cathedral, under the guidance of the Dean, Canon Scott Robertson, J. B. Sheppard, Esq., and Mr. J. R. Hall.

Much interest was shewn in the newly discovered relics from the tomb of Archbishop Hubert Walter, who died in A.D. 1205. These were on view in the Howley Library.

In the afternoon the ruins of St. Pancras's Chapel and St. Martin's Church were visited, under the guidance of Canon Routledge. E. P. Loftus Brock, Esq , F.S.A., also offered some remarks on the walls of St. Martin's Church.

By the kindly invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Mapleton Chapman the members took tea on their lawn, and inspected their interesting house called St. Martin's Priory. Mr. Chapman read a short paper on its history, and Mr. Loftus Brock dilated on its architectural features.

The Annual Dinner was served in the Music Hall, St. Margaret's Street, at 5 P.M. About one hundred and sixty sat down, the noble President being in the Chair. The other speakers for the several toasts were the Dean of Canterbury, the Archdeacon of Maidstone, Canon Scott Robertson, G. M. Arnold, Esq., Geo. Wilks, Esq., and Lewis Levy, Esq.

After proposing the toast of the Society, the Earl Stanhope, on behalf of the Society, presented to Canon Scott Robertson a fine silver bowl of the time of George III., on which appeared the following inscription:—"Presented to the Rev. Canon W. A. Scott Robertson by the Kent Archæological Society, in token of their high esteem and appreciation of his valuable services, on his resignation as Honorary Secretary. July 21st, 1890."

The Evening Meeting took place in the Crypt beneath the Library of St. Augustine's College. The Warden, the Rev. Canon Maclear, D.D., who presided, said a few kindly words of welcome, and then read a "Report on the repairing of the great Gate-Tower," now in progress.

Canon Routledge next read a paper on "Roman Churches in Canterbury," which was supplemented by an able address from E. P. Loftus Brock, Esq., F.S.A., Honorary Secretary of the British Archæological Association.

Canon Scott Robertson then read a paper on "The Tombs of the Archbishops."

The Secretary read a short note by C. Roach Smith, Esq., F.S.A., on "The Roman City Wall of Canterbury."

George Dowker, Esq., F.G.S., called attention to remains of foundations of Roman buildings existing in the playground of the Simon Langton Schools at Canterbury, suggesting that some excavations be made there.

On Tuesday, July 22nd, carriages containing about three hundred members left Canterbury for CHARTHAM CHURCH, where the company was welcomed by the Vicar, the Rev. C. Randolph, M.A. Mr. Loftus Brock described the church at length.

CHILHAM CHURCH was next visited, under the guidance of Canon Scott Robertson, after which the company passed into the beautiful domain of Charles Stewart Hardy, Esq. On approaching the mansion, Mr. Hardy advanced to greet the party, and at once hospitably invited them to partake of luncheon in a huge marquee on the south lawn.

After luncheon, Mr. Hardy personally conducted the company over the KEEP of the ancient CASTLE of CHILHAM. The Secretary gave an outline of the history of the fortress.

At Mr. Hardy's express wish no vote of thanks was accorded to him, but the Secretary cordially thanked him, privately, in the name of the Society, and many members did so individually. Hearty cheers, however, were given for Mr. and Mrs. Hardy at the instance of the Rev. Dr. Reyner.

Progress was then made to Godmersham Church, which was described by Canon Scott Robertson.

The homeward journey was by way of Waltham and Petham, a few minutes only being allowed to glance at the former church. The subsequent drive along the Roman way, called Stone Street, to Canterbury, brought to a successful close the Annual Meeting of 1890.

The Council met at Maidstone on September 22nd, 1890, the noble President presiding. There were nine members present.

Thanks were voted to the Dean of Canterbury, the Archdeacon of Maidstone, Canon Scott Robertson, Canon Routledge, E. P. Loftus Brock, Esq., Dr. J. B. Sheppard, and Mr. J. R. Hall, for their valuable help at the Annual Meeting at Canterbury.

Thanks were also voted to the Rev. W. Gardner Waterman for superintending carriage arrangements; to T. Mapleton Chapman, Esq., for allowing the members to view his house, and for kindly hospitality; to Canon Maclear, D.D., for the use of the Crypt at St. Augustine's College and other valuable assistance; to the Rev. T. G. Crosse for the use of Eastbridge Hospital.

Special thanks were likewise voted to Charles Stewart Hardy, Esq., for his cordial reception of the Society at Chilham Castle, and for sumptuous hospitality.

In consequence of the lamented death of Charles Roach Smith, Esq., F.S.A., etc., a distinguished honorary member of the Society, and one of its staunchest friends, it was resolved that a letter of condolence be forwarded to his relatives.

It was decided to hold the next Annual Meeting at Town Malling.

Eight new members were elected.

The Council met at Maidstone on December 29th, 1890, presided over by Canon Scott Robertson. Six members attended.

A letter was read from Colonel Jolliffe, R.M.A., who acknowledged with gratitude the letter of condolence from the Council to the relatives of the late Mr. Roach Smith.

The Programme for the next Annual Meeting was discussed.

Canon Scott Robertson reported that the whole of the Index to the Eighteen Volumes of Archæologia Cantiana was now in his hands, and that he was going through the manuscript, which covered 2500 folio pages.

The Honorary Secretary was elected Honorary Local Secretary for Rochester, vice A. A. Arnold, Esq., resigned; and the Rev. Walker Flower, Worth Vicarage, Dover, was elected to a like office for the Sandwich district, vice Rev. F. Shaw, who has left the county.

Thanks were accorded to the Rev. F. Shaw and Mr. Arnold for their past services.

A letter was produced by Mr. Bartlett from Mr. W. W. Cobb of Dover, whereby it appeared that certain Anglo-Saxon objects in the Society's collection were really the property of the Trustees of the Maidstone Museum. It was decided to ask the Trustees to allow them to remain where they had always been exhibited.

Three new members were elected.

It was unanimously resolved to insure the Society's Library and Collections in the Kent Fire Office for the sum of £1000.

The Council met at Maidstone on April 1st, 1891, the noble President in the Chair. There were six members present.

On the motion of Lord Stanhope, a letter of condolence was ordered to be sent to the Countess Granville on the lamented death of the Earl Granville, K.G., a Vice-President of the Society.

The Programme of the Annual Meeting was adopted.

Proof slips of 200 folios of the Index were laid upon the table.

Mr. E. Bartlett sent in his resignation as Clerk and Curator of the Society, on his leaving the Maidstone Museum.

After full discussion, it was resolved that his office be abolished, and the Chief Curator was requested to make suitable arrangements for the admission of members to the Rooms, and also for the cleaning of the apartments, the payment for such work not to exceed ten pounds per annum.

A letter was read from Captain Tylden-Pattenson, resigning his seat on the Council in consequence of his inability to attend.

A vote of thanks was unanimously accorded to him "for the efficient and kindly services he had rendered to the Society for so many years."

It was resolved that the vacant seat, in the Council, be given to Lieut.-Col. Hartley, M.A., LL.D., J.P.

The sum of three pounds was granted towards the expenses of excavations at St. Pancras Chapel, Canterbury, made by the Rev. Canon C. F. Routledge.

One new member was elected.

The Council met in London on the 24th of June 1891, at the house of the noble President in Grosvenor Place. The Earl Stanhope presided, there being thirteen members present.

Canon Scott Robertson reported on the progress of printing the Index. At the same time he announced that the state of his health would oblige him to resign the Editorship in twelve months' time, or after the issue of the Twentieth Volume of Archæologia Cantiana. This intelligence was received with the greatest regret by all present, and a hope was generally expressed that the immediate assistance of an expert might be obtained to relieve him from the pressure of the work. As Canon Scott Robertson was obliged to leave the Meeting early, the discussion was postponed.

The following letter was read:—

Walmer Castle, Deal, April 16th, 1891.

Sir,

Lady Granville requests me to acknowledge your letter of the 14th, and to request that you will convey to the Council of the Kent Archæological Society her best thanks for their kind resolution of condolence.

I remain, etc.

LEVESON.

To the Hon. Sec., Kent. Arch. Soc.

A printed proof of the Programme of the Annual Meeting at Malling was discussed and approved.

Kenyon W. Wilkie, Esq., of Ellington, Ramsgate, was elected a member of Council, vice G. E. Hannam, Esq., deceased. A record was ordered to be placed on the Minutes that the Council wish to notify their great appreciation of the late Mr. Hannam's long and valuable services to the Society, and their sorrow at his loss.

Holt White, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools, was elected Honorary Local Secretary for the Dartford district, vice R. W. Cradock, Esq., deceased.

The Secretary stated that he had made arrangements with the authorities at the Maidstone Museum for J. Lower, the Head Porter there, to attend to the Society's Rooms, and that J. Lower had permission to receive a gratuity for so doing.

The Secretary presented a complete descriptive Catalogue in manuscript of the Society's Collections, which he had prepared, together with a Catalogue of the Library. It was resolved that a cordial vote of thanks be given him for the trouble he had taken in the preparation of so valuable a work. An estimate was ordered to be obtained for printing and publishing the same.

The Secretary was instructed to confer with Canon Scott Robertson with reference to obtaining assistance in the Editorial duties.

Twenty-one new members were elected.

The Annual Meeting commenced at Town Malling on Monday, July 27th, 1891.

The Business Meeting was held in the Assembly Room, the noble President, Earl Stanhope, in the Chair.

The Report was read by George Payne, Esq., as follows:—

REPORT.

It is now twenty-two years since the Society visited Town Malling, and the Council has much gratification in presenting to-day its Thirty-fourth Annual Report, which is one of increasing prosperity.

Since the last Annual Meeting death has removed from our Society the Earl Granville, K.G., one of its Vice-Presidents. We also have to deplore the irreparable loss of Charles Roach Smith, Esq., F.S.A., one of our Honorary members. His eminence as an antiquary need only be referred to here, as his fame was well known throughout Europe. During his long life his valuable services were ever freely at the Society's command, as the Volumes of our Archæologia bear witness. To them Mr. Roach Smith contributed many learned papers, and the members of the Society have on several occasions listened with pleasure and profit to his able discourses on the various monuments of antiquity which have been visited in the county of Kent during our Annual Meetings. Although that voice is for ever silent, and the hand can no longer wield the pen, we have the gratification of knowing that we shall at all times be enabled to turn for instruction to the pages of his numerous works, which treat so exhaustively of the antiquities of our county.

During the past month, we have also lost one of our most esteemed members, G. E. Hannam, Esq., J.P., of Bromstone House, near Ramsgate. He was an original member of the Society, and acted for many years as a member of Council, and as an Honorary Local Secretary. By Mr. Hannam's lamented death the Society loses a valued friend and staunch supporter. Many other valuable members have been removed from our ranks by death or withdrawal, but in spite of these drawbacks the Council has the pleasure to announce that during the past year thirty-two new members have been elected, bringing the total up to 880, and eleven candidates await election at your hands to-day.

Members will be gratified to learn that an Index to the whole Eighteen Volumes of Archæologia Cantiana has been prepared for publication. Our Honorary Editor is now engaged in revising the vast mass of manuscript, which occupies about 2500 folio pages. Some folios are already in type. It is proposed to number the Index Volume XIX., and the twentieth volume of Archæologia Cantiana, for which material is in hand, will follow in due course.

The Council has to announce, with the most profound regret, that the Society's valued and esteemed Honorary Editor, Canon Scott Robertson, has expressed a desire that, after Volume XX. is prepared for the press, he may be released from those Editorial duties which he has performed for so many years with remarkable energy and consummate skill. The alarming illness with which he was afflicted some time ago, and which deprived the Society of his invaluable services as Honorary Secretary, has, alas, now rendered it expedient that Canon Scott Robertson be relieved of the Editorial duties. The Council is, however, not without hope that some arrangement may be made which will enable him to still retain the office, providing skilled assistance be forthcoming from the ranks of the Society.

During the past year considerable progress has been made in the Society's Rooms at the Maidstone Museum. The arrangement of the Library and collections is now finished, and at the last meeting of the Council complete Catalogues of both were laid upon the table. It is hoped that, in due time, these may be in the hands of members in a printed form.

The opening of our Rooms at Maidstone, every Thursday, has already produced good results in the loan of valuable antiquities for exhibition, while gifts of others have been promised. The presence of your Honorary Secretary there, on Thursday in each week, has enabled members to confer personally with him on various matters connected with the archæology of their districts, which cannot fail to be of ultimate benefit to the Society.

The financial position of your Society is everything that could be desired. In 1869, when the Society's Meeting was last held at Malling, there was a sum of £295 : 3 : 3 to the credit of the Society; to-day finds us with a balance at our Bankers of £764 : 11 : 0.

It may not be uninteresting to you to learn that the total sum paid for the printing, publishing, illustrating, and binding the entire eighteen volumes of Archæologia Cantiana has amounted to £8445 : 17 : 5.

At the Meeting held in this room in 1869 the death of the Rev. Lambert Larking was foremost in the minds of all present. After this long lapse of time we re-visit with peculiar interest the scene of his earlier and later years, and review with pleasure and pride the successful career of our Society, of which he was the founder, and for which he laboured so patiently, in order that it might be built up upon a firm and lasting basis.

On the motion of G. M. Arnold, Esq., seconded by Gerard Norman, Esq., it was resolved that the Report as read be adopted.

It was moved by the Rev. W. Gardner-Waterman, seconded by Lieut.-Col. Luck, and carried:—"That the Auditors be re-elected."

It was moved by Lieut.-Col. Hartley, seconded by Robert Hovenden, Esq., and carried:—"That the six retiring members of Council be re-elected."

Twelve new members were elected.

On the conclusion of the Business Meeting a move was made to Malling Abbey, which, by the kindness of Mrs. Cator, the members were allowed to thoroughly inspect. The Rev. C. H. Fielding, M.A., read a paper on the history of the Abbey, which had been prepared by the Rev. J. H. Timins, M.A., and himself. Subsequently, E. P. Loftus Brock, Esq., F.S.A. (Hon. Sec. of the British Archæological Association), conducted the party round the ruins, and described their architectural features.

Permission was also kindly granted for the company to pass through that portion of the Abbey which had been occupied as a residence by Mrs. Aretas Akers, until her death a fortnight previously.

Passing on to St. Leonard's Street, the fine Norman Tower of St. Leonard was next examined, under the guidance of Mr. Loftus Brock.

The company afterwards dispersed for luncheon; Lieut.-Col. Luck, Rev. J. H. Timins, Rev. C. H. Fielding, and Dr. Adam hospitably entertaining as many as they could accommodate at their respective houses.

After luncheon all assembled in Town Malling Church, which was described by the Vicar, the Rev. J. H. Timins, M.A.

Thence progress was made to East Malling Church, which Mr. Loftus Brock described.

On returning to Town Malling, an inspection was made of the walls of a Norman house in rear of the east side of the High Street.

Dinner was served in the Lecture Hall. The Earl Stanhope presided, and sixty-three dined. The other speakers to the several toasts were Canon Scott Robertson, the Rev. C. H. Fielding, Lieut.-Col. Luck, J. F. Wadmore, Esq., and Lewis Levy, Esq.

The Rev. C. H. Fielding, Lieut.-Col. Luck, W. Raven, Esq., Rev. C. H. Hawley, and Mr. Oliver kindly lent various objects for exhibition, which were displayed in the Assembly Room, where the Evening Meeting took place, with the noble President in the Chair.

The first paper was read by the Rev. C. H. Fielding, on the History of Malling, after which the Honorary Secretary gave an address on the antiquity of the roads in the district of Malling, and their relation to surrounding discoveries.

On Tuesday, July 28th, 1891, carriages containing some two hundred persons left for Bradbourn Place, the ancient seat of the Twisden family. The Rev. J. Francis Twisden, M.A., received the company, on behalf of Miss Twisden, in the great hall, where he gave a short history of the house, and explained by means of plans the alterations to it at various times. Mr. Twisden then conducted the party through the rooms, briefly calling attention to the portraits and other paintings with which the walls were covered. Time only admitted of the family portraits being more closely examined. Mr. Twisden described each of these, and they were much appreciated by those present.

Leybourne Castle was next visited, under the guidance of the Rev. J. H. Timins and the Rev. C. H. Fielding, after which the Church of Leybourne, with its Heart Shrine, was examined. The Rector, the Rev. C. C. Hawley, M.A., described it, his remarks being supplemented by a few remarks from Canon Scott Robertson.

Luncheon was partaken of in the Lecture Hall at Town Malling, after which the party proceeded to Trottiscliffe Church, which Canon Scott Robertson described. The Rector, the Rev. C. W. Shepherd, M.A., was present to welcome the Society.

While the church was being described, the Honorary Secretary conducted a section of the party to Coldrum Lodge Farm, and gave a brief address on the dolmen and cromlech there.

Addington Church was included in the Programme, but it could not be visited in consequence of the lateness of the hour.

On the return journey Offham Church was hurriedly inspected, under the guidance of Canon Scott Robertson. The Rector, the Rev. W. F. C. S. Fraser, M.A., welcomed the members.

This brought the Annual Meeting of 1891 to a close; the pleasure of the first day was somewhat marred by the inclement state of the weather.

The Council met at Maidstone on September 30th, 1891, Canon Scott Robertson presided. Eight members attended.

It was resolved that the Catalogue of the Society's Library and Collection be printed and bound up at the end of the Index Volume, and that the wood-blocks in the possession of the Society be used to illustrate the Catalogue.

The following "votes of thanks" in connection with the Annual Meeting at Town Malling were unanimously passed:—

To the Rev. J. H. Timins, the Rev. C. H. Fielding, Lieut.-Col. Luck, Dr. Adam, and Mr. Oliver for valuable help.

To Canon Scott Robertson, E. P. Loftus Brock, Esq., the Rev. C. C. Hawley, and the Rev. C. W. Shepherd for describing the Churches.

To Miss Twisden for permission to visit Bradbourn Place, and to the Rev. J. F. Twisden for describing the house and pictures.

To Mrs. Cator for permission to see Malling Abbey.

To Miss Savage for a like privilege at St. Leonard's Tower.

To the Rev. W. Gardner-Waterman for kindly superintending the carriage arrangements.

It was decided to hold the next Annual Meeting at Dover.

Canon Scott Robertson stated definitely that he would not be able to carry on the work of Editor after the Annual Meeting in 1892, when he hoped to be preparing, for the Press, Vol. XX. of Archæologia Cantiana.

It was resolved to subscribe for a copy of Mr. Cowper's edition of the Registers of St. Mildred's and St. Mary's Parishes in Canterbury, and also for a copy of Mr. Duncan's edition of the Registers of St. Mary's, Lewisham, and for those of Rochester Cathedral, by Mr. Shindler, if he should print them.

It was agreed to offer the sum of ten shillings as subscription for one year towards the expenses of the Conference of Archæological Societies, to be held at Burlington House, London.

The Secretary announced that Richard Cooke, Esq., of The Croft, Detling, a member of the Society, had presented to the Library a complete set of the one-inch Ordnance Survey Maps of the county. A vote of thanks was accordingly passed to Mr. Cooke for his kindness.

Four new members were elected.

The Council met on December 30th, 1891, in the Cathedral Library at Canterbury, by the kindly permission of the Dean and Chapter. The Dean of Canterbury presided, and there were six members present.

Various routes were discussed for the Annual Meeting at Dover.

The Editorship of Archæologia Cantiana was discussed at length, when George Dowker, Esq., proposed, and Canon Scott Robertson seconded, a resolution "that Canon C. F. Routledge, M.A., F.S.A., be invited to fill the office of Honorary Editor." Canon Routledge very kindly consented, much to the gratification of all present. His election was therefore carried unanimously.

Five new members were elected.

The Council met at Maidstone on March 28th, 1892. The Earl Stanhope presided. Eight members attended.

The Annual Meeting at Dover was fixed to take place on the 19th and 20th of July, and the Programme was settled.

H. B. Mackeson, Esq., F.G.S., Honorary Local Secretary for the Hythe district, desiring to resign that office on account of ill health, a special vote of thanks was accorded to him for his long and valuable services and hearty co-operation in the work of the Society. Mr. Mackeson arranged for the Society very admirably on two occasions, when the Annual Meeting was held at Hythe, in the years 1862 and 1888.

George Wilks, Esq., Town Clerk of Hythe, was elected to the vacant office in that district. Cecil Brent, Esq., F.S.A., finding his health unequal to the additional work entailed by the duties of Local Secretary for Bromley (which he undertook in 1888), a vote of thanks for his services was accorded, and T. N. Crafer, Esq., of Bromley, was asked to act for the Bromley division.

Votes of thanks were passed to the following gentlemen for donations to the Society's Library and Collection :—

To John Marten, Esq., for a collection of Flint Implements from Chilham district.

To the Rev. J. Langhorne for the Kent Volume of Grose's Antiquities.
